REAL ESTATE SALE.—We understand that Mr. W. A. Seaton has sold sixteen feet of his land opposite the Depot Hotel to D. M. Walter, who proposes to erect thereon a building to be used as a restaurant. Mr. Walter expects to have the restaurant going inside of two weeks. He is a man of family, an old hotel keeper, and knows just how to run a good eating house, and has secured as good a location for his purpose as can be found in Reno. Work has already been commenced in removing the building on his ground. Mr. Seaton proposes to fit up the remainder of the property as a lodging house immediately.

ROBBERIES.—Out at Morton's ranch they are having a series of robberies. Two or three nights since a man named Smith and Mr. Morton each had a saddle stolen. The night following Morton's shotgun was taken and Wednesday night a horse followed, also the property of Morton. No positive clue is had as to who the thieves are, but very strong suspicions are entertained as to their identity. This systematic stealing is annoying indeed and seems almost worthy of something larger than bird shot being used.

CAPTURED.—The two men who robbed the Aurora stage a short time since have been captured, and yesterday morning were taken to Carson in charge of the officers.

BUILDING.—Sanders & Neal are erecting a story and a half workshop back of their half of the Odd Fellow's building. The shop will be commodious and convenient.

The storm has blown over, but not until it laid the dust and refreshed the atmosphere.

Read and reflect on the "woolen mill" article elsewhere.

FRON.—There was a rumor that Thos. Fifth was to speak in the Reno Opera House last evening, but it did not prove authentic. We are in hopes that he will give another speech here during the campaign in which he will do justice to himself and his hearers. His speech here the other evening was good, but not long enough, owing to the unexpected presence of Hon. Thos. Wren, which caused him to shorten it a great deal. Those wonderful flights of eloquence and those brilliant word-pictures are so well known that all want to have their expectations realized.

OPENING EXERCISES.—Yesterday morning, as per announcement, the Episcopal Seminary was formally opened. Bishop Whitaker read the Episcopal service for the Twelfth Day in the Psalter, and then addressed the scholars and teachers concerning their duties and expectations. Several visitors were present. After this was through with the task of grading and classifying commenced. Thus opens the first seminary in the State of Nevada. May its days be long in the land, its success pre-eminent and its efficiency perfect. We hope many others will follow in its wake.

DISTRICT COURT.—Yesterday D. H. Flynn, on a charge of assault with intent to kill, to which he plead "not guilty," withdrew his plea and plead guilty of assault. He will be sentenced next Monday.

The case of State vs. Clark was continued for the term. Bonds fixed at $500.

The case of State vs. Flynn, for jail-breaking, comes up to-day.

Court then adjourned until 10 this morning.

RETURNED.—Rev. J. J. Powell has returned from the Congregational Ministerial Association, and will fulfill his agreement to serve as the pastor until the expiration of Rev. W. J. Clark's term which is in November next. Mr. Clark writes that he has been at the Centennial and is quite profuse in his praises of it. He is in Hartford, Conn., this week.

WRESTLING.—Saturday night, 14th, Homer Lane and Henry Mason will wrestle, collar-and-elbow, best two in three, for $100 a side, the championship of Nevada, and gate money, at the Reno Opera House, commencing at 8 1/2 o'clock. Admission 50 cents. Reserved seats for ladies, without extra charge.

CONTRACT LET.—We learn that J. Graff yesterday let the contract to build a house on the site of the one recently destroyed. The new building is to be of brick, and will not only add to the value and ornamentation of Commercial Row, but will ensure him from further fire. Well done.

OUT AGAIN.—J. B. Williams, who was hurt by falling from a wagon last Saturday at Glendale, was out of bed yesterday for the first time since the accident. He is doing splendidly and will put in an appearance in a few days at his post in the Recorder's office. We are glad he has escaped so fortunately.

GRADING.—The dirt from the excavation for Marshall's cellar is being used to good advantage. Virginia street contains after wet weather, a pond of water of quite respectable proportions. This dirt is filling the hollow up and when packed will make it a very good street.

BENEFIT.—The benefit to the Allen Sisters this evening at the Opera House promises to be a success. All acquainted with the circumstances of the case will attend and give the sisters a good house. We hope so. Reserved seats can be secured at the Postoffice.

WORK WAS resumed on the Odd Fellow's Hall yesterday morning. The second story is being pushed rapidly. The windows are being put in, and if they can only have a week or so more workable weather, the walls will be complete.

CAPTURED.—The two men who robbed the Aurora stage a short time since have been captured, and yesterday morning were taken to Carson in charge of the officers.

BUILDING.—Sanders & Neal are erecting a story and a half workshop back of their half of the Odd Fellow's building. The shop will be commodious and convenient.

The storm has blown over, but not until it laid the dust and refreshed the atmosphere.

The agent of the San Francisco Boot and Shoe Manufacturing Company, of Sansome street, has received orders from his employers to clear out their extensive stock of ladies', children's, men's and boys' boots and shoes regardless of cost. To accomplish a speedy and entire clearing sale, he will sell for three days only, all the goods he has on hand at prices never heard of before. This is a rare chance for families to lay in a stock of boots and shoes, as they will be sold at an enormous sacrifice. Come at once and secure Bargains. Remember three days only.

Notice.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3, 1876.

Ed. NEVADA STATE JOURNAL:—I see by an extract from your paper, that there is a man in your town representing himself as an Agent from a Boot and Shoe factory on Sansome street, San Francisco, with goods for sale made by white labor, and as ours is the only factory on Sansome street which employ all white labor, we disclaim having anything to do with any person selling goods in your town, except in a legitimate way. We are not overworked with goods, or pushed for money, as we make nothing but a desirable and saleable article. Our goods can be seen at Mr. John Sunderland's.

D. McCARTHY, Manager of United Workingmen's Boot and Shoe Co.

WESTERN STAR SALOON.—B. Pendola, the proprietor of this saloon which is situated on the west side of Center street, keeps constantly on hand the choicest beverages of all kinds and the best brands of cigars. Among his choice drinks are Pendola's favorite, pineapple, cabinet, Pendola's punches and the renowned ambrosial cocktails, all of which are daily dispensed at the Western Star. Every attention is paid to patrons. Order and civility is the rule at this saloon.

CLOTHES CLEANED AND DYED.—Mr. Felix McHugh having established a clothes cleaning and dyeing business at the Pollard House, is now ready to clean all ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, blankets, gloves, all kinds of furs, and merinos so that they will look as well as new. All kinds of dyeing done with neatness and dispatch. An experience of thirteen years in the East guarantees him to ensure satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Orders left at the dye works will be called for and returned. Give him a trial is all he asks.

For ladies' fine sandal slippers and toilet slippers, go to Sunderland's.

Rooms to let.—A furnished suite of rooms are to let. Terms $15 per month. Enquire of T. M. Payne.

FALL AND WINTER OPENING.—The latest novelties in Fall and Winter fashions will be opened out at Mrs. Julia J. Prescott's fashionable establishment, next door to the Postoffice. Thursday, Sept. 7th, where all the ladies of Reno and vicinity are invited to call. In addition to the above we are requested to inform the ladies that Mrs. Prescott is prepared to sell her elegant and newly selected stock of millinery at marvellously low prices, and all she asks is for the ladies to call and convince themselves.

Mr. JACOB PRESCOTT is our only authorized agent in Reno for the sale of the celebrated new style Florence Sewing Machine.

DAK GOONS! DAK GOONS!—Gray & Isaacs, the rulers and regulators of prices of the dry goods trade in Reno, are doing an immense business in their new store on Virginia street, next door to Beck & Co., and opposite their old stand. This wide awake young firm has revolutionized the dry goods trade in Reno, and intend maintaining their great popularity, if low prices and fair dealing will accomplish it. They have extraordinary facilities for purchasing goods, and are daily in receipt of the latest novelties known to the European and American trade. Ladies will save money by patronizing this young house, for not only have they convinced the entire population of Reno that they have sold goods lower than the same could be bought in San Francisco, but are determined to still continue to run in the same channel. Notwithstanding the enormous advance in the price of silks they still continue to sell them at 80 per cent. below old prices. Special reduction in carpets and dress goods. Three-ply carpet, $1. Two-ply carpet, 62 1/2 cents. Hemp carpet, 25c. Camel's Hair Cloths for ladies' suitings, at 25 and 45 cents, original price 62 1/2 cents and $1. All the latest tints in Cashmere, Poplins, Broadened Pongees and Camelites, with silks and fringes to match. Blankets, Shawls, Flannels, House Furnishing Goods, etc., below San Francisco prices. Ladies, just step into the "Centennial" and feast your eyes on the magnificent stock of goods, as your true friends, Gray & Isaacs will always be pleased to show you their complete assortment of goods, whether you want to buy or not.

Resolutions and Platform of the Republican National Convention.
First—The United States of America is a nation and not a league, and by the combined writings of National and State Governments under their respective Constitutions the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad and the common welfare protected.
Second—The Republican party has preserved these governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now embellished with the great truths spoken at its birth—that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, and that these rights are chiefly to be secured by the establishment of a firm and just government.
Third—The permanent preservation of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party stands ready pledged.
The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendment is vested by those amendments in the Congress of the United States, and all declare it to be the solemn obligation of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous execution all the constitutional powers for removing any just cause of content on the part of any class and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of civil, political and public rights. To this end the Republican party demands a Congress and a Chief Executive whose courage and integrity to these ends shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall. In the first Act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government sought to remove any doubts of its intention to discharge all just obligations to public creditors, and actually pledged its faith to make a provision at the earliest possible period for the redemption of United States notes in consideration of the property, public credits and the national credit now demanded that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payments. Under the Constitution the President and heads of departments are to make recommendations to Congress, the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to approve and prosecute faithful officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions shall be respected, and that Senators and Representatives who may be called into office should not accept appointments to offices. The irresponsible rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, integrity and capacity of the appointees, giving to the party in power those places where the honor and vigor of the Administration require a display to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to efficiency of public service, and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of retaining faithful service to their country.
Sixth—We rejoice at the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unflinching.
Seventh—The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American nation and the Republic and, with a view to its security and permanence, we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control.
Eighth—The revenue service for current expenses and the budget of the public debt must be largely derived from duties on importations, which, as far as possible, should be directed to promote the interest of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.
Ninth—We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and individuals, and demand that the national domain be devoted to the benefit of the people.
Tenth—It is the imperative duty of the Government to satisfy the existing treaties with European Governments that the same principles shall be afforded to the naturalized American citizen that is given to the native-born citizen, and that no law should be passed to prevent immigrants in the exercise of power in the States for that purpose.
Eleventh—It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the effect of the investments and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country.
Twelfth—The Republican party, recognizing with approval the substantial advance recently made toward the establishment of equal rights for women, by the many important amendments suggested by Republican Legislatures in the new which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by appointment and election of woman to the superintendency of institutions of education, charity and other public trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

Territories—The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power it is the right and the duty of Congress to prohibit and exclude, in the Territories, that relic of barbarism, polygamy; and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories.
Foreigners—The pledge which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. This great people will always hold those who periled their lives for their country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.
Farmers—We sincerely deplore the sectional feeling and tendencies and we therefore move with deep solicitude that the Democratic party count, as its chief hopes of success, upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we invoke the earliest attention of the country to the grave truth that the success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil the national honor and human rights.
Shareholders—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control of the House of Representatives the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent loss; with conspiring and applauding at the National Union, the continuance of unrepentant rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the wall and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to revitalize the plighted faith of the Government; with being equally false and impetuous in overshadowing the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself, through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incapable of administering the government, and we warn the country against trusting party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.
Government—The National Administration desires compensation for its heroic work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs and President Grant deserves the continued and heartily gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his unflinching service in war and peace.
